29 DEATH PENALTY CASE

30 Respondent in this capital federal habeas case, Warden S.W. Ornoski, has submitted a 31 request to modify the scheduling order issued July 28, 2010, regarding Petitioner's claim that 32 California's statutory scheme fails to adequately narrow application of the death penalty, to which 33 counsel for Petitioner has no objection. Good cause appearing, the scheduling order for 34 Petitioner's claim that California's statutory scheme fails to adequately narrow application of the 35 death penalty is modified as follows: Respondent's opposition or objections to Petitioner's 36 evidence and Respondent's witness designations, declarations, and exhibits shall be filed on or 37 before November 17, 2010. Depositions of the witnesses, if necessary, shall be completed by
